KUALA LUMPUR- Malaysia and Bangladesh will explore potential cooperation in higher education, talent development and skilled workforce mobility. Higher Education Minister Datuk Seri Dr Zambry Abd Kadir said the matter was discussed during a courtesy call by Bangladesh Minister of Expatriates' Welfare and Overseas Employment Ariful Haque Choudhury, accompanied by Bangladesh Prime Minister's Adviser Mahdi Amin, at the Ministry of Higher Education today. God willing, this bilateral relationship will continue to be strengthened for mutual benefit, in line with efforts to enhance the national higher education ecosystem towards greater competitiveness and inclusivity," he said in a Facebook post following the meeting. The post also included several photographs showing Zambry receiving Ariful and Mahdi at the ministry building.
